

FAQ – Accident

Q: What is the Accident plan about?

A: The Accident plan is a yearly renewable term plan that pays out a cash lump sum (“Coverage Amount”) should you suffer either death or Total and Permanent Disability (“TPD”), resulting from an accident.

This amount will be paid to your nominee if you have passed away, or to you if it is an accidental TPD. You need to have a Death coverage first before being eligible to purchase this plan.

Q: What is the definition of Total and Permanent Disability (“TPD”)?

A: TPD is a condition where you experience permanent disability rendering you unable to do any work anymore or perform basic living functions like bathing and eating independently. For the complete definition of TPD, kindly refer to the Product Disclosure Sheet or Contract.

Q: How long is the coverage for?

A: Accident coverage lasts for 1 year. You can renew the policy every year until the member is 70 years old.

Q: Does this product suit my member?

A: This product is suitable if you want pure protection at the most affordable cost for your member. However, you should be satisfied that this plan fulfills the member needs and that the premium is within your budget.

Q: What is the amount of coverage I should choose for the member?

A: The aim is to reduce the member’s family and the member’s financial burden should an unfortunate event happen. The amount of coverage depends on your budget and financial needs. Nevertheless, you must ensure that you can afford the premium throughout the coverage term.

Q: How much premium do I have to pay for the member?

A: The premium depends on your member’s age, gender, occupation and amount of coverage. Hence the premium increases as they age at each renewal date. To find out what your member’s current and future premiums are, please refer to the Product Disclosure Sheet.

Q: Are there any additional fees that I need to pay for my member?

A: No, there are no additional fees that you need to pay.

Q: Does my member get Income Tax Relief for premiums paid?

A: Yes, your member may qualify for personal income tax relief subject to final decision of the Inland Revenue Board.

Q: Who is eligible to be insured under DearTime's Accident plan?

A: All Malaysians aged between 14 days old and 65 years old are eligible.

A: You can learn more about the features, benefits and exclusion by referring to the Product Disclosure Sheet and Contract.

Q: Why do I need to provide documents like Business Registration Certificate, Form 24 and Form 49?

A: As a responsible financial institution, it is necessary for us to identify and verify the identity of our customers. Please ensure the image (including documents) provided shows your details clearly. We reserve the right to defer or reject your application if we are unable to satisfactorily verify your identity through the documents provided.

Q: How do I change my company's contact details?

A: You can change your email address and mobile number via our DearTime Corporate Portal.

Q: Is Sales and Services Tax (SST) chargeable for DearTime Products?

A: No. We provide “group” insurance as individual policies rather than group policies; hence 6% tax is exempted.

Q: What happens to my member’s coverage if I stop paying premiums?

A: Your member’s coverage will be deactivated automatically if the premium is not paid within the grace period of 30 days for policy less than 2 years or 90 days for policy more than 2 years.

Q: Can I reactivate my member’s coverage after it is deactivated?

A: No, you will have to go through the new purchase process.

Q: Can I change my premium payment frequency?

A: The Payor may switch the premium frequency anytime between monthly and yearly:

1. If it is switched to monthly mode, the new premium frequency will take effect from the next premium due date.
2. If it is switched to yearly mode, the new premium frequency will take effect immediately upon successful payment of unpaid annual premium that is outstanding until the next renewal date.

Q: Can I change the member’s amount of coverage after purchasing?

A: You can increase or decrease the Coverage Amount anytime in DearTime Corporate Portal:

1. Increased coverage amount will take effect immediately upon successful payment of additional premium prorated to the next premium due date.
2. Decreased coverage amount will take effect on the next premium due date.

Q: Can I cancel my member’s coverage after purchasing it?

A: Yes, you can:

1. If you cancel your policy within 15 days from the date you first purchase, we will immediately refund all premiums paid to your bank account.
2. Even after the 15-day cancellation period, you still have the right to deactivate your coverage anytime. Please note that in such cases, your coverage will be deactivated on the next premium due date and there will be no refund of premium.

Q: Can I purchase Accident plan if my member already has a medical condition?

A: It depends on the medical condition you have. Please contact us via live chat, email or our customer service helpline for more details.

Q: Where can my member view the exclusion and/or loading that is imposed on the policy?

A: Your member may refer to the Contract to view the specific exclusion and/or loading that has been imposed.

Q: Is my member required to go for medical checkup to purchase DearTime's Accident plan?

A: No medical checkup or examination is required. Your member just needs to complete the medical survey. They can also get our panel doctor from a panel clinic near them to assist them to answer. All they need to do is to pay the medical survey fee to the panel clinic first and we will reimburse them when their coverage starts.

Q: What will happen if my member did not answer the medical survey truthfully or mistakenly declare wrong information?

A: It is important that your member disclose all required information correctly and truthfully. False disclosure may result in claims rejection. We reserve the right to verify all information provided by your member and may void/cancel the policy if we discover that they have provided incorrect information.

Q: When will my member receive their policy documents after purchasing the Accident plan?

A: Immediately upon successful purchase, your member can view their Product Disclosure Sheet and Policy Contract in their DearTime account.

Q: Will there be an agent to assist me in purchasing and editing my member's coverage?

A: We have made insurance processes simple and fully digital allowing you to conveniently handle things on your own. However, if you have any questions or need guidance along the way, you can contact us via live chat, email or our customer service helpline.

Q: Who can my member nominate?

A: Your member can nominate any individual as the nominee for their policy. However, they cannot nominate a corporation or organization.

Q: Can my member change their nominees?

A: Yes, they can change their nominees anytime in their DearTime account, unless a Trust is created as follows whereby consent from the Trustee is required:

A Trust in favor of the Nominee(s) is created under Section 130 of the Financial Services Act 2013 (Schedule 10), if the Nominee(s) of the Policy Owner (other than a Muslim Policy Owner) falls into one or more of the following categories:

- Spouse only; or
- Child only; or
